

Damgate Cottage - Privacy Policy

Under new General Data Protection Regulations (GDPR), this statement sets out how the information we collect from you in the course of our business will be processed, stored and passed on.

Your personal information in the form of names, property addresses, telephone numbers and emails addresses as provided by you will be used in the form of business related correspondence created to confirm bookings and may be stored for future marketing of this business only but will never knowingly be passed on to others without your prior consent.